

DIARY NOTES

LKW

25 June 1965

1. I talked with Mr. Kirkpatrick this morning, and we reached the following general understandings: He will vacate his office and make it available to me by the opening of business on 5 July. [] will accompany him to the East Building and will work with him on the long-range plan and other problems until about 1 September. The other personnel in his office will remain at least for the time being. He asked me specifically about [] and I told him that I thought [] should return to DD/P but that this would not have to be done immediately and that I would be glad to talk to [] about it. Kirk has about two and one-half weeks of annual leave for which he cannot be paid, and he will use this before he changes his employment status. He will therefore remain on the rolls as a staff employee at his present salary until he has used this leave, at which time he will change to WAE contract status until 1 September, at which time he will change to regular consultant status at $50 a day. (Kirk and I communicated this to Emmett Echols.)

2. Mr. Kirkpatrick, [] and I met to discuss [] loan from COMOR to work on the long-range plan until 1 September. It was agreed that this would be a full-time assignment with the exception of perhaps three or four hours a week. There will be no formal release from COMOR so that there is no danger of CIA losing the Chairmanship of COMOR and, at the same time, there is no commitment to [] beyond 1 September.
